

WORKSHEET

Mapping Your Use of the MLA Handbook

Please map your use of the eighth edition of the MLA Handbook in documenting the sources you use for your research-essay assignment.

Respond to the prompts in the first column by entering answers in the adjacent columns. In the Comments column, explain in as much detail as possible any questions, problems, or issues you may have had with the relevant aspect of citation and rate the amount of difficulty you had finding the information you needed on a scale of 0 to 10 (0 being very easy, 10 being very difficult).

Remember: You must fill out and submit this form with your essay for credit.

Where does the
YES/ MLA Handbook discuss
NO? this topic?*                      Comments

Do you give in-text citations for all quotations and paraphrasing from sources?
Do your in-text citations include all necessary information?
Does each in-text citation key unambiguously to an entry in the list of works cited?
Do the works-cited-list entries for your primary sources include all relevant items from the MLA list of core elements and are they listed in the correct order?
Do your works-cited-list entries for secondary sources include all relevant items from the MLA list of core elements and are they listed in the correct order?
Are there any additional citation matters about which you consulted the handbook?

*If you used the print edition of the handbook, please list page numbers. If you used the e-book, please list section numbers (e.g., 1.6.2) for part 2 and identifying phrases for part 1 (e.g., “When a source has two authors”).